

- environment for new non-crossing moves new shift moves from pairs in one interval to positions in the other interval

→ points to the new position of the shift move